What is Kids Space?

Parents' separation and divorce can be a time of change and transition for everyone. It may lead to some children feeling a range of difficult emotions and a sense of unsettledness. Kids Space is a therapeutic group for children, facilitated by family counsellors. It is a safe place for children to be able to meet with others, share their emotions, thoughts and experiences and learn new ways of self-expression and emotional regulation.

How Kids Space works

The children share an afternoon tea and then participate in a range of activities including playing games, creating art, read stories and puppet play with the aim to process grief and family changes; and gain self-regulation and coping strategies that will benefit them at home, school and socially.

How to access Kids Space?

Referrals can be made directly to CatholicCare NT on 8944 2000. A family therapist will contact both parents to arrange a time to meet individually to discuss their child's needs and current coping styles. The Practitioner, with permission from both parents, will then meet with the child/ren to discuss the group. Further details regarding the group will be provided on referral.
